(d) ICICI has reported that all the loans given by them are recoverable as the loans are secured by either assets or by guarantees. However, wherever units are not in a position to service the debt and where all rehabilitation efforts have fallen through, ICICI enforces the security and files suit wherever necessary.

Textile Machinery Industry

1015. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state:

(a) the additional capital investment made in the textile machinery industry during 1994-95 and till date and estimated amount spent therefor;

(b) what steps Government have taken to create a class of professional and creative designers/technicians to support the textile industry to boost exports in the coming years;

(c) whether Government are aware of the tremendous rise in exports by the textile industry; and

(d) if so, what additional incentives Government propose to give to the exporters of Cotton Yarn/Cotton fabric during the current year?

THE MINISTER OF TEXTILES (SHRI G. VENKAT SWAMY): (a) The Federation of Indian Textile Enginerring Industry, Bombay has reported that an estimated capital investment of Rs. 120 crores was made in the textile machinery industry during 1994-95.

(b) With a view to further develop and strengthen design capabilities and training of manpower for textile and clothing sectors, Governmment have recently opened four more branches of the National Institute of Fashion Technology (NIFT) at Calcutta, Gandhinagar, Hyderabad and Madras. Besides, the Government have also finalized seven courses of fashion design, production technology, sitching operations, pattern-making, quality control etc., for training supervisors and shop floor level workers. These courses would be conducted by the Apparel Training and Design Centres, which are being set up by the Apparel Export Promotion Council.

(c) Yes, Sir.

(d) Government is adopting a restrictive approach in the matter of export of cotton yearn by fixing annual ceiling for export of cotton yarn from year to year. However, the Government have been taking a number of measures for boosting exports of textile items, including cotton fabrics, such as sponsoring Buyer-Seller Meets, participation in fairs in major markets, releasing advertisements in foreign trade magazines, product development and quality upgradation through appropriate training programme.
